An Apostles Thanksgiving

I Thessalonians 1: 2-3

Introduction: Paul paused in Corinth on his second missionary tour to write a letter to the church in Thessalonica. His letter begins with much _____ as he remembers the brethren there and the events of their conversion. Paul commends them for three unforgettable things.

I. Their _____ produced by faith.

A. What is this work.

1. The book of _____ speaks much about Jesus work.
2. We have been given a _____ to accomplish.
 - a. When we came to Jesus we were recreated in his likeness. We were created in Christ Jesus to do _____.

II. Labor produced by _____.

A. I Corinthians 13: 1-6 gives us a _____ of love.

1. If we love it results in _____.
 - a. John 14:14 “If you love me, you will _____ what I command.”
 - b. In John 13: 34-35 Jesus gave a _____ to the disciples.
2. Love carries _____ to its fullest.

III. Endurance _____ by hope.

A. The Thessalonians had much to endure – they were a persecuted people (II Thessalonians chapter one). The things that upheld them was their _____.

1. Hope in Christ is different from the hope that we ordinarily speak of.
2. Our hope in Christ is an _____. With _____ we look forward to the Lord’s return.

Conclusion: This is the first time in his writings Paul uses the triad “Faith, Hope, and Love.”

If these characteristics are present in our lives we are on our way to _____.
